

Identification and Traceability

Knowledge Check

1. What is the name of the form you need to review before identifying and tracing a product?
 - a. Shop Traveler
 - b. Miller Certificate
 - c. Shipt Certificate
 - d. Floor Traveler
2. How do we receive raw materials for making a product?
 - a. Customer ships it to us.
 - b. Mill ships it to us.
 - c. We order from a catalog online.
 - d. Customer requests the materials and we get it from a 3rd party supplier.
3. When should a product be traced in the shop?
 - a. When raw materials are received.
 - b. When we start to create a gear.
 - c. Throughout the manufacturing process from raw materials to shipment.
 - d. When we ship the gears to our customer.
4. How is a Purchase order named to make it easier to identify?
 - a. F003
 - b. G005
 - c. P001
 - d. PO02
5. When receiving a purchase order what should be located?
 - a. Heating plan
 - b. Certification of Compliance
 - c. Nitrading
 - d. Build plans
6. Who should review the Mill Certificates?
 - a. Receiving
 - b. Manufacturing
 - c. Engineering
 - d. Quality Assurance
7. Why do we trace products?
 - a. Prevent loss
 - b. Prevent theft
 - c. Prevent confusion
 - d. Prevent shipping
8. How do we trace products?
 - a. Use log boxes
 - b. Use skid tags

- c. Use mill certificates
 - d. Use digital labels
9. When receiving materials what should be verified?
- a. Quantity
 - b. Chemical Composition
 - c. Packaging
 - d. Plans
10. How do we identify issues with the materials? (Check all that apply.)
- a. Damage
 - b. Metal on metal contact
 - c. Chunks missing
 - d. Melting

DO NOT COPY